

Triple H

Building the Future

MSS GROUP WELCOMES JAMES OGILVIE

James brings a rich executive background with more than 20 years' experience in planning and executing major programs and projects spanning various industry sectors including Retail, Corporate Branding, Public Health, Construction and Industrial Design. He excels in crafting and implementing work programs, covering everything from the initial design concept to field delivery. His extensive involvement in Network Development, Health Asset Infrastructure, Defence, and Securities has equipped him to successfully oversee large-scale development projects for ANZ, Shell and British Petroleum, both domestically and internationally.

Richard Sams commented; "I am delighted to have James on board. His wealth of experience in developing and delivering large scale programs will serve Triple H well as we embark on a national roll-out with a new client. In addition to his operational and stakeholder management expertise, James brings a very positive, pragmatic and calm mindset. I have full confidence in James and look forward to working with him over the long term"

James Ogilvie commented; "I'm absolutely thrilled to embark on my new role as Project Director at Triple H Technologies. The excitement is contagious as we dive into this strategic program of works. Meeting the warm and welcoming team has been a highlight, and I'm eager to collaborate, innovate project management practices, and set the stage for success for the team. My first few weeks here have been nothing short of amazing. The team's support and camaraderie have made me feel right at home. I can't wait to harness this positive momentum as we progress together towards shaping the future at Triple H"

Please extend a warm welcome to James as he transitions into his new role

ABOUT TRIPLE H
